GOVERNOR MAY CALL ANOTHER EXTRA SESSION

Appropriation Bill Seen As Cause of Possible Deadlock

MAY INVESTIGATE OIL CORPORATIONS

House Tables Resolution Offering K. K. K. Speaker Use of Hall

AUSTIN, Texas.—Senate leaders voted 10 to 11 to adjourn the legislative session at noon of Thursday. An adjournment was called by the Senate conference committee on the appropriations bill, and the legislature will "in effect" sit until Sept. 1, when the House adjourned to allow time for the Senate to act on the bill.

The two legislative chambers had agreed to meet on Aug. 25 to work out a compromise bill to break the deadlock. The Senate conference committee composed of Senator John T. Connelly, Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, and Senator W. W. Brewster Thomas, appointed House conferees, Senator John H. Thompson and Senator John H. Kline, to meet with the Senate conferees.

EXTRA SESSION LIKELY

The leaders in both chambers agreed to adjourn the session on Aug. 25, and the Senate adjourned at noon of the day.

NEXT Wednesday. The Senate will meet again at 10 a. m. to consider the appropriations bill, and the House will adjourn at 1 p. m. to meet again at 10 a. m. on Aug. 26.

Both chambers have voted to adjourn the session on Aug. 26, and the House adjourned at 1 p. m. to meet again at 10 a. m. on Aug. 27.

THE WHY-WHYS Senate Bill 1333, which the court of appeals decided shall not renew until the Legislature was killed in the fire, failed when motion to adjourn was carried, and the measure was defeated. However, this motion was later reconsidered and the motion to adjourn was defeated.

TO PROBE OIL CO'S. The resolution by Miller of Dallas, providing an investigation of the operations of certain large oil companies in the Middle West, and calling for a limitation of the amount spent in turning down the price of oil, and crude oil was adopted in the house by a vote of 101 to 1. The measure now must be voted on again.

The senate adjourned the session yesterday, and the House adjourned at noon on Aug. 25, and the Senate adjourned at 10 a. m. on Aug. 26.

A resolution, bearing the name of Miller, and which would afford him a chance to speak at the state fair, was introduced, but was not adopted.

PACIFIC PROBLEMS IN DIAGRAM

This map shows the six Pacific problems that the discussions will have to settle. No. 1 shows the Island of Man, center of the Amakiriwa League of Nations movement. No. 2 shows the Shantung question. No. 3 and 4 show China, where the "open door" policy and the Chinese's territorial interests are at stake. No. 5 shows Alaska, where territorial interests are in the balance, which also are the cable lines which play a role in the outcome of a heated argument. The map also shows how United States is vitally involved in the Pacific problems because of its island possessions, namely the Philippines, Guam, Wake Island and Hawaii.

ENROLLMENT MAY BE MADE BASIS

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 10.—The Senate finally passed the State enrollment, changing the present system of apportionment of the legislative seats to one based on population as of the 1920 census. It does not take effect during the 1921-22 session, but does take effect one following year if recently enacted.
